CUB SCOUT LEADER BALOO TRAINING

(Basic Adult Leader Outdoor Orientation) (C32)

Saturday, April 13, 8:00am – 4:00pm

(Please report at 7:30am for check-in, presentation starts at 8:00 am sharp)

BALOO Training is a day of fun and learning which will help pack leaders plan and carry out a quality "entry-level" outdoor experience for the Cub Scouts and their families. Participants will better understand the laws of the BSA and camp programming while acquiring the skills and confidence to host a successful campout by increasing their knowledge of available resources and the use national and local council standards as guidelines.

BALOO includes information on:

- ✓ Preparations for camping with Cub Scouts
- ✓ Site Selection
- ✓ Parent Involvement
- ✓ Health and Safety
- ✓ Cub Food
- ✓ Equipment
- ✓ Introduction to Outdoor Skills

This Training is required for any adult who is in charge of planning and leading a pack campout. Any pack wishing to camp, must have at least one BALOO certified adult onsite for the campout and a Local Tour Permit approved by NCAC.

Where:	Lions Merryland Park, Petersville Road, Rosemont Maryland 21758
