Appalachian Trail Activities Photo Guidelines

Great photos are important for getting publicity for AT's activities! It's difficult to get a great photo without posing everyone, so please plan on a posed photo using these guidelines:

1. Have everyone facing the camera, smiling or a pleasant expression.
2. If possible, get Scouts and Leaders doing something interesting, while still facing the camera.
3. For the newspapers we must have everyone's name. They will not use it without everyone's name. Email photos to Diane DeMarco, ddemarco2@comcast.net or Ashley Robinson, ashleyrobinson90@gmail.com

Also, ask each Scout's parent to sign the below Talent Release Agreement from the Boy Scouts of America. They may have signed it when registering for the event; we just need to make sure it's been signed.

Excerpted from form 680-001

I hereby assign and grant to the local council and the Boy Scouts of America the right and permission to use and publish the photographs/film/videotapes/ electronic representations and/or sound recordings made of my child at all Scouting activities, and I hereby release the Boy Scouts of America, the local council, the activity coordinators, and all employees, volunteers, related parties, or other organizations associated with the activity from any and all liability from such use and publication.

I hereby authorize the reproduction, sale, copyright, exhibit, broadcast, electronic storage, and/or distribution of said photographs/film/videotapes/electronic representations and/or sound recordings without limitation at the discretion of the Boy Scouts of America, and I specifically waive any right to any compensation I may have for any of the foregoing.
