Cub Scout Leader BALOO Training

(Basic Adult Leader Outdoor Orientation)

Saturday, October 27, 2012, 8am – 4pm

LDS Scotts Run Church, 1325 Scott's Run Rd., McLean, VA 22102
(GPS Coordinates: 38.937781, -11.203588)

(Please report between 8-8:15am for check-in; course starts at 8:30)

BALOO Training is a day of fun and learning that will help pack leaders plan and carry out a quality "entry-level" outdoor experience for the Cub Scouts and their families. Participants will better understand the rules of the BSA and camp programming while acquiring the skills and confidence to host a successful campout by increasing their knowledge of available resources and the use national and local council standards as guidelines.

BALOO includes INFORMATION on:

- ✓ Preparations for camping with Cub Scouts
- ✓ Site Selection
- ✓ Parent Involvement
- ✓ Health and Safety
- ✓ Equipment
- ✓ Feeding
- ✓ Introduction to Outdoor Skills

Training is required for any adult who is in charge of planning and leading a pack campout or any Cub Scout overnight activity. Any Pack wishing to camp or sleep overnight (e.g., cabin camping or on a ship) must have at least one BALOO-certified adult onsite & generally a Tour Plan submitted to NCAC in advance.

Where:	LDS Scotts Run Church, 1325 Scotts Run Rd., McLean, Virginia
How much:	$10.00 paid at the door with Advance Online Registration ONLY – NO WALK ON REGISTRATION - Includes BREAKFAST and LUNCH!
What to bring:	A GOOD ATTITUDE, HEALTHY APPETITE & your UNIFORM Water bottle and notepaper plus pen or pencil
Why:	TO HAVE FUN, of course, but also to ensure that your Pack has at least one (preferably two) BALOO-trained adults to help plan and attend Cub Scout campouts! P.S. The BALOO certified adult should be a member of the Pack Committee or an adult Pack family member. Den Leaders, Committee Chairs & Cubmasters already have a "full time" job – but of course they are welcome and encouraged to attend.
