welcome friend

The "On My Honor" phrase embodies the essence of Timeless Values. Not only are Scouts expected to understand and agree to live by this creedo, but everyone involved in Scouting is held to the same expectation.

The hard work and dedication of more than 22,900 volunteers helped produce the results highlighted in this report.

Scouting provides a safe place for children to grow, develop, and become the ethical leaders of tomorrow. A 1st grade boy putting on his Tiger Cub uniform for the first time only knows that he's in for a truly great time. When a teen-age boy earns the Eagle Scout Award, he knows not only about good times, but responsibility as well. The same holds true when a boy or girl earns Venturing's Silver Award, or Sea Scouting's Quartermaster Award.

No one is born with good character and strong values — those are learned from family, friends, peers, religious leaders, and other mentors. While building character is primarily the role of parents, the Boy Scouts of America is helping youth understand that good character is the foundation of a happy and successful life. Values are taught while collecting canned food for the needy, worshiping in a camp chapel, planting trees, and a great variety of other Scouting activities.

vision

mission

Mission

The mission of the Boy Scouts of America is to prepare young people to make ethical and moral choices over their lifetimes by instilling in them the values of the Scout Oath and Law.

Vision

The vision for the NCAC is to accomplish the mission of the BSA in such an exemplary manner as to be recognized by our public as the premier youth organization in the communities we serve and by other councils and the National Council as second to none in all our endeavors.

Scout Oath

On my honor I will do my best to do my duty to God and my country and to obey the Scout Law; to help other people at all times; to keep myself physically strong, mentally awake, and morally straight.

Scout Law

A Scout is:
Trustworthy, Loyal,
Helpful, Friendly,
Courteous, Kind,
Obedient, Cheerful,
Thrifty, Brave,
Clean, and Reverent

special event

highlights

Event fundraising is an important source of income for local Scouting programs, raising over $1,500,000 during 2004.

It also provides opportunities to recognize distinguished community and business leaders who exemplify Scouting ideals in their daily lives, while promoting the benefits of NCAC's activities.

These events ranged widely in size and impact and included community breakfasts and luncheons in many of our districts, council and district golf tournaments, industry business luncheons, and gala dinners.

The largest such event was the record setting Citizen of the Year Dinner that raised over half a million dollars in support of the council's programs.

Camp William B. Snyder Under Construction

the promise delivering

During 2004, funds continued to be raised via the Major Gifts Initiative. The focus of the Initiative is Camp William B. Snyder, Goshen Scout Reservation, the Endowment Fund, and the Marriott Scout Service Center.

Goshen Scout Reservation - Goshen, Virginia

In 38 years, over 300,000 Scouts and families have learned Scout skills at these camps. Numerous naming opportunities are available for recognition of a gift to this project.

Camp William B. Snyder - Haymarket, Virginia

Situated on 350 acres of former farm and woodland, this camp will soon feature all of the amenities of a Scout camp: swimming pool, volunteer training center, dining hall, and much more.

The much anticipated "Grand Opening" of this camp is set for May 6, 2006.

Numerous naming opportunities are available for recognition of a gift to this project.

Ensuring Our Future

Endowment will help to ensure the availability of Scouting programs in perpetuity.

Marriott Scout Service Center - Bethesda, Maryland

Refurbishing the Marriott Scout Service Center to better serve NCAC's youth, volunteers, parents, and supporters.

Carroll's Cottage at Camp William B. Snyder was named in honor of Scout Executive Ron L. Carroll
