

On 20 December, 2009, the National Capital Area Council announced it had selected the Occoquan District as a Centennial Quality District for 2010.

In a message to the District units, Warren Aldrich, Occoquan District Chairman said “It is my pleasure, on behalf of all three of us, to tell you that the Occoquan District was named a Centennial Quality District for 2010. This is a direct reflection on you, your parents, your quality program, and your support of the district. Without you, Occoquan would not have been named as a Quality District. That is the good news. We did a fantastic job in membership but did not meet our financial goals by a smidgeon. (Our financial bright spot was the efforts of Pete DeSalva who raised a ton of money on his own.) Nevertheless, we were close enough and we should be proud of that.”
