

100 Years of Boy Scouting in America

Photograph of President Truman in the Oval Office receiving a report on the accomplishments of the Boy Scouts from a delegation of Eagle Scouts, who are giving him the Boy Scout salute, 02/06/1951. From the Harry Truman Presidential Library.

Special Programs

Early Entrance Hours for Boy Scouts in Uniform and Their Families

July 23, 24, 25

8:30am-9:30am

Enter Through the Special Events Entrance

From the Vaults: 100 Years of the Boy Scouts

July 26 at Noon

Repeated on July 29 and 30 at Noon

William G. McGowan Theater

Featuring archival footage of Boy Scouts selected from the holdings of the National Archives. (60 minutes)

National Archives Experience

Use the Special Events Entrance on the Corner of 7th and Constitution Avenue, NW www.archives.gov/nae public.program@nara.gov 202.357.5000

Free Admission